SR questions

1- basics:

-name?

-Collage?

- Faculty?

- Level?

- Email?

- Chosen field of research?

2- availability

-How many hours are you free in a working and a resting week?

30-20

-What communication app do you use?

any

-If someone asks you a question online, when should you respond?

Immediately, or within 45 minutes

3- field research

1.   What or what do you know about the scientific research?

2.   Have you had any encounters with the scientific research or any research before?

3.   If you had an encounter, what was the research about?

4.   Do you know the structure of the research and if you do , list the structure

5.   What is the most important part of a research paper?

Abstract-introduction

6. How would you prescribe your level in the scientific research?

7. Have you taken any courses about the scientific research ?

8. Do you have a specific target you want to achieve through our scientific research community?

9. Do you have a scientific gap ?

10. If you want to make a research, on what subject would it be?

11. Do you follow the latest news about the scientific research, and if you do , what sources do you depend on or use ?

12.   What was the latest discovery you came across which caught your attention?

13.   Do you have a role model in the field of research ??

14.   Based on your point of view, do you think the AI would be useful in the future in the field of research?

15.   How fast can you read and understand a research paper?

4-6 days, less can be better

16.   1.5-hour lecture, how much can you summarize it?

Any

4-Wanted field

- What do you know about your chosen field outside of academic knowledge?

-Did you take any courses about the subject?

Do you personally know a professor in your field?

Subjective answers to all questions

5-conformation

This position will require you to take regular tests to evaluate and keep you sharp. Courses will be given to you in advanced subjects in your preferred field, will you be ready to take them?

Yes important!!!